ABOUT US

Hang Ten is the original surf and California life style brand, born in 1960. We are fun, carefree and strive to represent the Hang Ten identity of always being out in front and looking good while doing it. We at Hang Ten Eyewear wanted to offer our community a great, quality product at an affordable price, and now we're ready to share what we have with the world.

Our sunglasses provide 100% UV protection and are made with shatter proof lenses, and the best part? We help our community. For every pair of Hang Ten Sunglasses we sell, we donate one to Ronald McDonald House Charity of Southern California!

So go ahead and pick a pair. We promise to always offer the best quality and style we can, if you promise to get out there with us and live your best life.

See you out in the surf.
